RE: San Augustine County Yearly Material and Haul Contract

To Whom It May Concern,

Texas Materials Group, Inc. respectfully submits this letter to formally notify San Augustine County that Attoyac Rock, LLC has been acquired by Texas Materials Group, Inc.

As a result of this acquisition, Texas Materials Group, Inc. is now the successor entity, and we request that all applicable records, contracts, and project documentation be updated to properly reflect this change.

Please note that the acquisition does not impact ongoing operations, personnel, project scope, schedule, or contractual obligations associated with the referenced project. All work will continue to be performed in full compliance with contract requirements and applicable regulations.

If any additional documentation, forms, or acknowledgments are required to complete this update, please advise and we will provide them promptly
